Let's Make a Difference.

At FedEx and our thousands of FedEx Office locations, it's important for us to put our concern about the environment into action. We're continually working to integrate sustainable practices into all our business networks — online, retail, printing and shipping. The work we're doing — and the services we offer — can help you reach your own goals of becoming a better environmental steward.

Turn your facility's event space into an exceptional experience. Our onsite team members know your event space and can help you design, print and install each piece.

Escalator Wraps

Utilize more of your event space with stunning escalator wraps. They're easy to apply and make a big impact on your brand message.

Elevator Wraps

Draw attention with these easy-to-apply (and remove) elevator wraps. These memorable graphics come in adhesive vinyl that sticks easily to its surface — giving your event more attention in unexpected places.

Floor, Wall and Other Surface Graphics

Print photographs, graphics and lettering on self-adhesive vinyl that can be used on floors, walls, windows or other surfaces for temporary indoor or outdoor signage.

Looking for a unique way to promote your event? Bring your creative ideas to us and we can help bring them to life through stunning printed branding.

Meter Boards

Firm but lightweight signage that can be used to print powerful, high-quality graphics. Need to switch your message quickly? Meter boards can be printed on two sides — making it easy to flip the board over to display a secondary message.

Large Banners

From timeless messages to custom graphics, banners can help you say what you need to say — and are available on a wide variety of substrates and materials.

Retractable Banners

Lightweight, flexible banners and retractable banners can be printed with four-color processes on one side.

FedEx Office banners and boards are easy to set up. Display kits are available.

Posters

Make an impression with durable, indoor posters with crisp colors that stand out. Vibrant, photo-quality posters are perfect for presentations and wayfinding — custom sizes and templates are available.

Directional Signage

Wayfinding made easy. Help attendees find where they need to go with eye-catching directional signage.

Outdoor Signage

Custom-made outdoor banners attract attention and communicate your brand message effectively. These durable banners have an outdoor lifespan of 3–6 months.

Vehicle Wraps

Give your event extra visibility in your host city by using vehicle wraps — made of durable vinyl material and printed in full color — that can be applied to the exterior of local shuttles and buses.

We supply everything you need to hang or display your materials — from grommets and suction cups to metal A-frames.
